

CARPE DIEM

SEIZE THE DAY

CARPE DIEM

Lyrics by Mike Puritan

I'll always remember the chill of November,
The news of the fall, the sounds in the hall,
The clock on the wall ticking away "Seize the Day."
I heard him say life will not always be this way,
Look around, hear the sounds,
Cherish your life while you're still around.
We can learn from the past, but those days are gone.
We can hope for the future, but there might not be one.
The words stuck in my mind alive from what I've learned,
I have to seize the day.
To home I returned, preparing for her flight,
I held will all my might, fearing my deepest fright.
She walked into the night, she turned for one last look,
She looked me in the eye.
I said "I Love You. . . Good bye."

Seize <sup>THE</sup> Day

Principal's Message

Mr. Piccara

To The Class of 1997,

As I reflect upon the 1996-97 school year two words come to mind: commitment and success. I believe that each senior has learned the value of commitment, dedicating many long hours to the accomplishment of a personal goal established many years ago, graduating from Marple Newtown Senior High School. Success, the positive completion of a personal goal or objective, is the feeling that you are experiencing as you prepare to accept your diploma from high school and begin to accept the many new challenges your future has for you. With graduation rapidly approaching, I believe you have truly learned the meaning of commitment and success, and the positive correlation of one on the other.

Graduation from high school is a time when we conclude one segment of our lives and begin to accept new challenges. Graduation is not an end unto itself, it is rather the beginning of another new and exciting journey. The object of a high school education is to prepare you to become a life long learner, promoting the successful accomplishment of future goals. Graduation is one reward which is hard earned, and for you, well deserved. Remember, however, that it is only one of many goals you have in your journey through life and much remains to be accomplished.

As you begin the next leg of your journey, remember the words of Harry S. Truman. "I studied the lives of great men and women, and I found that the men and women who got to the top were those who did the jobs they had in hand, with everything they had of energy and enthusiasm and hard work." You have the foundation necessary to be successful in life. Mix in hard work, commitment and dedication and you will accomplish the many goals you have set for yourself.

I wish you continued success, good health and the best that life has to offer.

Spirit Week

The annual spirit week competition among the classes began with the canned food drive. In a very close competition, the Seniors beat the Juniors by 21 cans. On Monday, each class performed a skit containing two cartoons and a commercial. The Senior's Chipmunks and Scooby-Doo took first place followed by the Junior's Flintstones. In the powder puff game, the Juniors and Sophomores defeated the Seniors and Freshmen. On Wednesday, color day, each class decorated their hallway and dressed in their colors. In the volleyball game, the Senior Boingers defeated the Junior's Saturday Night Fevers, the faculty, and the Varsity girl's volleyball team. At the pep rally, it was announced that for the second year in a row, the class of 1997 had won spirit week.

Field Hockey

This year MN field Hockey finished fourth in the Central League, but #1 in our hearts. We played well with strong victories over Penncrest, Lower Merion, Upper Darby, and Haverford. At one point we tied for first place contending for the title, but we encountered a setback from a controversial loss to Ridley. However we came back strong to beat Strath Haven for a playoff birth to districts. In the first game the tigers played defending state champs Methacton. Though we held our own, we lost 0-2. Great job to all the girls, and thanks for a great season. Love, Lisa, Amy, and Colleen.

Junior Varsity (L-R) 3rd: B. Guest, M. Bowman, A. Madison, K. Slattery, C. Spratt, J. Duthie; 2nd: K. Calabrese, C. Felter, C. Immel, E. Breslin, S. Cursin; 1st: D. Romano, A. Russitelli, C. Rodano, J. Elliot.

Both the girl's and the boy's teams improved this season. The girls steadily improved throughout the fall and at the Central League Championships finished a strong fifth. At district 1 race, the ladies finished 20th out of 48 schools. With a full squad of runners, the boys were able to score as a team during the 1996 season. Individually, the ladies were led by the two seniors, Emily Furia and Jackie DiStefano. Emily won the Kutztown Invitational and finished 2nd in both the Delco and Central League Championships. A fifth place finish for her at districts led to a trip to states where she won a medal placing 19th. Jackie brought home medals at the Bulldog Invitational Delco Championships, and the Central League Championships.

On December 6, 7, 13, and 14th of 1996, the MN stage lit up and hosted this year's fall production, Twelfth Night. It's been years since Marple has performed a Shakespearian play, and Shakespeare exploded on stage this year. Under the direction of Mr. McHugh, the cast and crew put on an amazing four nights with lots of laughter, lots of drama, and lots of wedding cake. Thanks to all who helped make this year's fall drama a success.

Fiddler On The Roof

This year's spring musical, Fiddler On The Roof, brightened the MN stage with traditional singing and dancing. Student directors, Erica Strong and Kristen Hirner, and student producer, Christina Nabholz, helped put on a dazzling show. With the many talents of the actors/actresses and "fiddlers" (pit orchestra led by Mrs. Puleo), the show was a wonderful success.

This year the Marple Newtown Concert Choir size from 55 to 85 members. Joined by a love of music and performance, this year's choir strengthened their bond through such things as choir camp and the formation of a homeroom. The choir gives 2 concerts annually and sponsors a solo concert at the end of the year. This year the MN choir proudly sent five members to the district choir. They are seniors Habib Azar, David K. and Jay Park, Junior John Grecia, and Sophomore K. Calabrese.

Orchestra

The Marple Newtown Orchestra began the year by rehearsing every Monday and Thursday mornings. They perform various concerts throughout the year including the Rain Forest Concert with the choir. Under the direction of Mr. McCleary, the orchestra will continue to be a success.

The 1996-97 Marple Newtown Tiger Marching band started out onto the scene with their sultry fall field show, taking a superior rating at every competition. The Tiger band's fiery show included the sweet singing strains of George Gershwin's Summertime, the ever popular melody from My Favorite Things and The Fury of Tonight from West Side Story. Indoors, the tiger band's concert repertoire included Shostakovich's Festive Overture and Africa: Ceremony and Dance. The tiger band's concert competition was held at Myrtle Beach this year. Under the excellent direction of Mr. Bearj Jahanian and superior student leadership from all the officers including Drum Major Habib Azar and President Maggie Immel, the tiger band is proud of their incredibly successful year.

Kel, You have always been a joy to us with your warm smile, kindness to others and funny stories. We know our Kel-Bel is destined to achieve great things in her life.
Someday you will make a wonderful teacher -hold on to your dream. We love you. Mom, Dad, Erinn, and Jacque.

Congratulations, Donna ... and you are our joy! ... Who could ask for a more precious Christmas gift? The love, warmth, and pride you bring to our lives grows with each passing day. With your contagious smile and spirit, you are certain to achieve success. Love, Mom, Dad, Patty, and Cathy too!

Donna Candiotti

Chris and Jean, Graduation is here!
Together you go into the world to go your separate ways, but never to be far apart. May God hold you in the palm of His hand. Love, Mom and Dad.

Jean and Chris Campbell

Eric Carroll

Eric, May sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home. May you grow to be proud, dignified and true. Be courageous and be brave and in my heart you'll always stay "FOREVER YOUNG."
When you finally fly away, I'll be hoping that I served you well, but whatever road you choose, I'm right behind you win or lose. Love,
Mom and Dad

Gwen Ceton

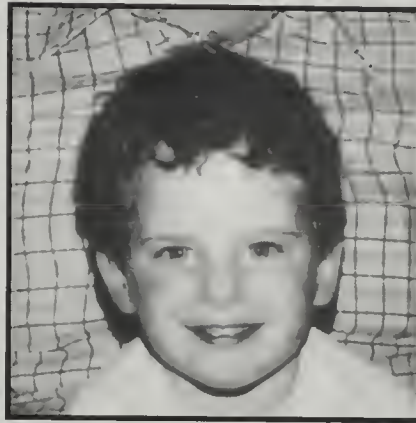

To Gwen - our third "little doll", what a finale you are! Your accomplishments never cease to amaze us and make us so proud. As we look back and treasure the memories of your childhood, we also look forward to sharing the joy of your new challenges and successes. We love you. CONGRATULATIONS, Mom, Dad, Merrie, Allison and all the family.

Dear Maria, We are so lucky you came into our lives. We reflect back on your childhood with fond memories. Your terrific sense of humor is one of your greatest assets. ## Can You Guess The Teachers?

Senior Class Officers

This year has been going by fast and I'd like to thank Chiho, Amy, Jenn and Mrs. DeLuca for helping to make that so. We're all seniors already, too soon for some, late for others, but to me it seems like yesterday when we were struggling to find our ways around the halls. By the time you read this our lives as highschoolers will be drawing to a close. The only thing some of us will have are nostalgic memories of childhood. As we travel off to college, or wherever else, I know none of us will forget Marple, especially our senior year. Good luck and good-bye.

Jim Renshaw
Vice President

Hi. It's me, Chiho. I want to thank everyone in the Class of 1997 who made it possible for our dreams to become realities. It's been four long years of chaos and uncertainty, times that pressed against the minds of our youth. Through the hardships of the work, or the breaking of the heart, though the pain of a death, or a friend's depart, through the many times we find ourselves in troubled spots, we have triumphed, and for many of us, other trials will come, some harder than before, and as they test the wills of men, we'll triumph over them once more. I want to also thank my advisors Mrs. DeLuca and Mrs. Innaurato, Zigs, Angie Lai, Marshall, Jenn McKenna, Kim Stewart, Rench, Sara Landrum, Paul Benedict, Deek, and all those teachers who pushed me to my limits and beyond. Special Thanks to the Ellena Faction, my cuz Sandra, Milo, Krusty, Mr. Nagle, the Fu-Tang Clan, Mom and Dad and most of all God.

nineteen-seventy-seven

nineteen-seventy-seven

Time, what a funny word. So many things rely on time. So many things are described by time. The school bells, television shows, meetings, games, practices, sports, concerts, plays, doctor/hairdresser appointments. Time is even related to our thoughts; it takes time to think. We've been lucky that we've had a great four years together, and time went so fast. Each of us put a lot of time and effort into bringing our class together. The clock is ticking away now, make it all worth while. Be good to yourselves and others and everything will fall in place. Share your happiness. Time will tell . . . .

Amy Ziegenfuss
President

It's finally time to leave this place where we all have shared so many memories. The important thing is to never forget them. It was an honor to serve as secretary of such an exceptional senior class. You all had so much spirit and individuality and you worked together so well. Never lose those qualities. Thank you, Mrs. DeLuca and Mrs. Innaurato, for all your hard work and dedication to making our class the best it could be. Also thanks to Amy, Chiho, and Jim for their time, energy, and leadership. To my friends - I love you and couldn't have made it without you. We've been through the good and bad times together and now it's time to venture out into the real world, where we may drift apart. Make sure you remember one thing, "Man's self is the sum total of all his friends." Best wishes, Class of 1997, I hope your futures are filled with all the love and happiness in the world!

Helping consumers maintain privacy, marketers promote home AIDS tests. Consumers draw their own blood and then send it away to be tested confidentially.

Advancing technology means more options on telephones, including Caller ID, which becomes more common than ever in 1996. The display unit allows people to see the name and number of their caller before even answering the phone.

Authors Ellen Fein and Sherrie Schneider release The Rules, a controversial manual teaching women strategies for getting a man to propose marriage. While the book draws criticism from both sexes, it is a best-seller.

The U.S. Postal Service issues stamps commemorating Hanukkah, the first non-Christian religious holiday ever featured on a stamp.

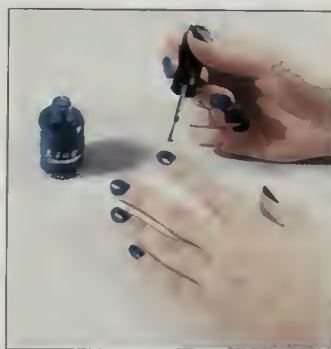

Casual Fridays become more and more widespread in American work culture. Businesses allow employees who normally dress in professional clothing at work to wear more comfortable, casual clothing on Fridays.

A "Sesame Street" stuffed toy causes panic among holiday shoppers. Tickle Me Elmo sells out in stores nationwide, and has shoppers fighting over scarce inventory and paying hundreds of times the toy's value.

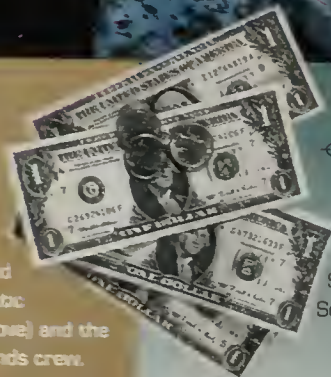

The My Twinn Doll Company offers individually crafted dolls that replicate, from a photo, the eye color, hair and facial features of a living girl. Each doll comes with two matching outfits, one for the doll and one for the owner.

Nail polish colors get darker and funkier. Deep browns and blues are popular forms of expression and style.

The ongoing dance craze is the "Macarena," a Latin line dance. People of all ages participate in the craze, including Olympians, delegates and workers of the Democratic National Convention (above) and the New York Yankees grounds crew.

The minimum wage is raised to $4.75 in October, and will increase again to $5.15, effective September 1, 1996.

The beverage industry introduces a new concept—bottled water with caffeine! One bottle of the uncarbonated water contains as much caffeine as one cup of coffee.

Behold the insanity that rules our lives. It's our order ruled by chaos that defines our existence. Obsession, absurdity, indulgence. A time of new friendships and trust betrayed. New experiences as we make first contact. Too much Mk and the giant Q. We move from point A to point B without examining the consequences. Consequences bring destruction. Destruction brings rebirth. Rebirth is the phoenix, now more spectacular that ever.

What an incredible 4 years. (Seven)
What I cannot understand is why some people spend their seventy words sending cryptic messages to other people. I would like to use my remaining words to publicize 2 things, the first being that (forty-two) "money doesn't grow on trees; something must, why not words?" and secondly: "sending confidential resources endlessly wills you almost ludicrously linked to each other." (Six times nine) Bye.

What a long, strange trip it's been. After four years at Marple all I can leave is the legacy of H.R. MacRean. Whatever that is. But to all my friends I must ask . . . Is there some Moose Pice down the woods? No. How about a Summertime Adventure? I'll pass. But listen to the famous last words of a certain professor. Why? Why not?

*"It was by chance we met, by choice we became friends. It all started so innocently. We met as strangers, thrown together by fate.
You have been with me through the good times and the bad. You have comforted me when I cried, listened when I talked, & laughed with me when I was happy . . ." Mom & Dad: "Silence is golden." Sharon- I believe in you more than anyone.
Alexis: My driving skills are fine.
Liz: Library or King of Prussia?

Last Words

Well, here it is. For all of you who complained to me about the yearbook, hopefully this'll satisfy you. Special thanks to Mrs. Gallagher, Bob Johnston, Mr. Williams, Mr. O'Brien, Janice Bigelow, & Mr. Baily for their time, help, and support. To Staff: Maggie-thanks for getting ads, but what happened to 8 pages? Jess-you did a great job with the sports appointments. Jason & Lis-thanks for helping out with everything! And last but not least, Karen-what would I have done without you? Too bad we didn't make a super-schedule with the yearbook! To friends: Clara Seo- My other crazy insomniac! Your bluntness & 3am phone calls keep me up at all hours of the night. Hey, remember that Ref song that starts with me-eum and that Korean guy with the last name Kim? Thanks for listening to me & making me laugh when I needed it! What would I have done without you jr. year?! (Ahh! Be attacked by athletic equipment!) Don't ever change! Sue Chi- STALL ONE! STALL TWO! Which guy are you talking about—first? second? . . . twentieth? "Aigoo cham-nah!" Difference between love and lust? 8 hr train ride from Boston to NY! "My darling" Amy Chen- My S. Cali A-z-n Frunker! "Friends? What friends?" What would my life be w/out your fobby stationery letters? Future Fencers, right? Bernice Joo- Crazy memories - taking walks in the middle of the street and jokes in the Riley Room. Memorable phone calls "It's so cool, but not cool!" Maybe (if ever) I'll see little people dancing again; think of you, and see little people with red eyes dancing. May Yoon-You've become one of my closest friends. Only 2 more years- hang in there! You're so pretty and talented! Jeff Kim- I have so much respect for you. Jeff, I'm fine! Yes, I can walk straight, touch my nose & say my ABC's! Monica Cho- I admire you for your carefreeness. You're one of the few people I have known to never sound stressed. Christine Lee- "It's all good! Kickin' back! It's da bomb!" Fang Bangs! Hey, it's 5:30am, don't ya think we should find a place to stay? Alisa Rhee- Thanks for sending me cookies express mail! (For me? For ducks? J k) Eileen Shin- Don't forget our trips to NY and strange encounters with guys in pool halls and trains. Never again at Manhattan Mall. Jane Kim- "We are NOT interested!" Don't forget our fights about our lives which, of course, I won. Sam Lee- You're a classic "cK"-Crazy Korean! Don't give up on yourself. Charles Han- you SFS jock! "Charee, you so fawhneel!" Kiteh Kim- You always make me smile. Your charm? Nah- it's your goofiness! You're one of the sweetest guys I know! There are so many of you! Minsung, Jess, Paul, Dave, John, Richard, Andrea, Diane, Henry . . etc . . . I'll never figure out how all you guys manage to be top ten in your class & take 6 AP courses, yet go to crazy parties on the weekends and be so wild. To family- Sharon- My sarcasm was always the greatest for you. And despite it all, you've grown up to be much better than me. Stay that way! Mom & Dad- Phone bills come and go, but I'll always be here. Hope I made you proud. To the class of '97- Seize every moment, make no regrets . . . apologies are meant, and the past mere secrets . . .

Aieeee!

The yearbook is done. Thanks to everyone who helped create the yearbook - the ad-sellers, the lay-out copiers, the artists, the people identifiers, the picture contributors, the editors and especially those who put up with me when I was crazed. Mr. Williams and Mrs. Gallagher - Thanks for your keys, your signature and your help. Jason - Thanks for "whipping" up lay-outs and being around to help. Suzy Jack! Jess - Thanks for relaying things from Mr. Williams and the sports section. Maggie - Thanks for all of the checks off my hands and dealing with the business office. Jae - So, we missed a few deadlines and won't get a certificate, oh well. The good news is that the unbelievable has happened - the yearbook is done! All of the long planning sessions, phone calls and hysterics have transformed into a great yearbook (we hope.) To the staff of next year's yearbook, two words - plan ahead (nothing can ever be done too early.) Congratulations to the Class of 1997! I hope this book will help you remember your time at Marple. Good luck in the future and remember to "seize the day!"

Special thanks to all who helped to make this yearbook possible. (Especially to all who helped to identify people.) Also, this yearbook would not be possible without the cooperation of the senior class and to Bob Johnston who sacrificed much of his time. Thank you for the excellent photographs, and to the students for some of their donated photographs. Thank you all.

In one of the stars I shall be living. In one of them I shall be laughing. And so it will be as if all the stars were laughing, when you look at the sky at night.

You—only you—will have stars that laugh. -“The Little Prince” by Antoine de Saint-Exupery
